SOUTH CAROLINA
DOCKET NO. 94-571-C - ORDER NO. 95-557✓
MARCH 8, 1995

IN RE: Application of Digital Dial Communications,) Inc. for a Certificate of Public Convenience)ORDER and Necessity to Provide Intrastate Resold)GRANTING Telecommunications Services Within the State)WITHDRAWAL of South Carolina.)

This matter comes before the Public Service Commission of South Carolina (the Commission) on the request of Digital Dial Communications, Inc. (Digital Dial) to withdraw its Application filed on or about August 26, 1994.

On or about August 26, 1994, Digital Dial filed an Application with this Commission for a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity to provide resold intrastate interexchange telecommunications services. The Applicant proposed to offer outbound and inbound services, calling card service, and directory assistance service.

On February 10, 1995, Digital Dial filed a request to withdraw the Application. Digital Dial stated that it was going to concentrate its primary business efforts in the southwestern part of the United States and, therefore, did not wish to proceed with the Application.

The Commission has examined this matter and believes that Digital Dial has stated good cause for withdrawal of its Application and the relief requested by it should be granted.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED THAT:

1. The request of Digital Dial to withdraw its Application is hereby granted.
2. This docket shall be closed.
3. This Order shall remain in full force and effect until further Order of the Commission.
